Kia ora, Malo e lelei, Talofa lava, Kia Orana,
Namaste, Ni Hao, Alsalamu Alaykum,

Winter is truly here now and we are already over half way through term two!

There has been a loads of 'REAL WORLD LEARNING' going on in and around the school. Students from the senior school have posed some pretty confronting questions around the amount of waste we are producing as a school and the impact this has on our local environment but also how this contributes to the national and global issues around the production and management of waste. Children have been gathering student and teacher voice around what we might do to combat this problem! This is the kind of learning that creates a real buzz of excitement where kids ask the hard questions, do real investigations and are then are empowered to take action!

CHARTER CONNECTION — REAL WORLD LEARNING (G R O W)

Promote rich and diverse learning programmes that are: Culturally responsive, inclusive, connected, passion driven, meaningful, relevant, current and future focused. We will include local, national and global learning contexts. (preparing global citizens).

Mid-year Progress Reports and Learning Conferences:

Teachers are busy writing mid-year Progress Reports at present — these will be coming home Wednesday 13 June. These reports focus on key learning areas and are the basis for discussions at our Learning Conferences. We look forward to having all families involved in the Learning Conferences. When students, parents and teachers are all working together then the learning is powerful!

Learning Conference letters will be coming home this week. Please read the letter and then make a booking for a Learning Conference. The purpose of these reports is to inform parents and whanau of the progress children have made in relation to the Literacy and Numeracy Learning Progressions and New Zealand Curriculum Levels, their next learning steps and ways families can support learning at home. Teachers have used a variety of sources of information such as nationally normed tests, teacher made tests, everyday classroom work, student self-assessment, discussions with children, observations and anecdotal notes to make a judgement on progress towards the Literacy and Numeracy Learning Progressions and New Zealand Curriculum Levels in Reading, Writing and Maths.

Just a reminder that this is a change from previous reports that included National Standards. If you have any questions or require clarification regarding the report, please touch base with the classroom teacher or pop in to see me.

Stay warm!
