Kia ora, Malo e lelei, Talofa lava, Kia Orana, Namaste, Ni Hao, Alsalamu Alaykum, Fakalofa lahi atu, Talohani,

I really cannot believe that this is the last week of the term, which also means we are already half way through the year! Here are a few bits and pieces to end our term. Have a safe and restful break everyone, you all deserve it.

Reporting to Whanau: You would have received a mid-year report for your child or children which will included the following.

- An update on learning progress and next steps
- General comments that reflect a holistic view of your child and links to the school's RIMU values
- Comments relating to learning skills used through inquiry

We would love to receive any feedback about the reports. Please email your child's classroom teacher and or me – Kelly.barker@hamptonhill.school.nz

Learning conferences will take place next term which will provide an opportunity for students, teachers and whanau to talk about learning progress and to ensure students are being well supported, stretched and are excited about learning at school.

Celebrating Matariki

What a fantastic evening to celebrate the past, present and dreams and aspirations of our tamariki, whanau and community. Thank you to whanau and staff for your precious time and resources you all brought to make this time a success. Mauri ora!

It's all about our PEOPLE!

As winter sets in and we wind down to the end of the term, we know as parents that our children are exhausted and quick to fall to pieces. So with that in mind, It is a good time to remind children of our RIMU values and what they can do in situations that are challenging. We have very resilient children here at our school who are unbelievably patient, kind and forgiving with children who they know are learning how to be learners. I also love the fact that we have amazing parents and teachers who understand the idea that... "if a child can't read, we teach them, when they can't write, we teach them and when they misbehave, we teach them!"

As a school community we often talk about inclusive education and what this means for all children. This is about every child's right to learn in a safe and secure environment. Relationships are the key so we can grow people to thrive at Hampton Hill School and I would like to thank our community for their open and honest communication which is much appreciated. Positive relationships provide opportunities for us to work together to grow confident and capable learners who demonstrate our RIMU values for lifelong learning. If people do ever have any concerns or celebrations that are happening at school for their child/ren, please don't hesitate to touch base with classroom teachers as the first port of call and include me in the email.

Have a lovely break everyone. Stay warm and safe these holidays.

Nga mihi nui

From the Office

Lost Property—We have a huge number of jackets and tops in our lost property. This will be on display today at the bottom block and Thursday at the top block. Please make sure you label/name your children's clothes so that we can get lost items back to them. Any unclaimed clothing will be donated to charity at the end of the term.

Clothing Donation— A big thank you to the community group who collected up pre-loved clothing for us to distribute in the school.

Many thanks to Paper 4 Trees (<https://www.paper4trees.co.nz/>) and their local sponsors for providing us with 5 beautiful Cabbage Trees (Cordyline Australis) as part of our paper recycling programme. We look forward to caring for these trees and watching them grow!

Kāhui Ako: information update

Kia ora Kāhui Ako whānau,

Mauri tū, mauri ora An active soul is a healthy soul

This whakataukī talks of one's participation in a project or initiative or to celebrate people's involvement and participation in an activity.

There are a number of Kāhui-wide work streams at the moment and there is an attempt to make these planned, available to the Kāhui staff and students, and worthwhile.

The Kaitiaki Māori student group is made up of Māori students from Years 5 to 10 from all schools. It is such a delight to see students from all of the Kāhui schools talking and thinking about next steps for themselves and their schoolmates.

Over the last three weeks, hui have taken place that are looking at the interplay of Oral Language, Māori Success and Local Curriculum. Planning is well underway to develop resources through the knowledge of iwi, local community groups, teachers, and even students, and use Pepeha as the basis of study around the History and Geography, both Māori and European, of the extended Tawa region. It is hoped that out of this work graduate profiles for students from Years 1 to 10 may emerge.

The Principals group met on Tuesday. We are fortunate to have such a collegial group of leaders who have both their own ākonga and those from other kura in their thinking. This benefits all of the young people in our community as they move through the pathway of Primary, Intermediate and Secondary schooling.

Disability Support System Transformation

Funding a better life?

"The aim of the transformed system is to ensure disabled people and their families have greater choice and control in their lives."

Ministry of Health

Will it deliver?

Will lives be improved?

What will it look like for us?

The ihc Wellington Association is holding a meeting on Tuesday, 9 July at 7:00pm, St Joseph's Church, Mt Victoria to update, get feedback and answer these questions and more.

A panel of speakers will share their experiences so far of the "Transformation". The panel will include Ally Atwell (a connector): Toni Griffiths (from Choices) and David Hughes (from Geneva Healthcare).

Come along, bring others, keep this conversation alive and make sure it's real change for the better.

Triplicity Theatre are performing their show The Duck Who Loved Me at BATS Theatre in Wellington from 16-20 July with performances at 11am, 1pm and 6.30pm.

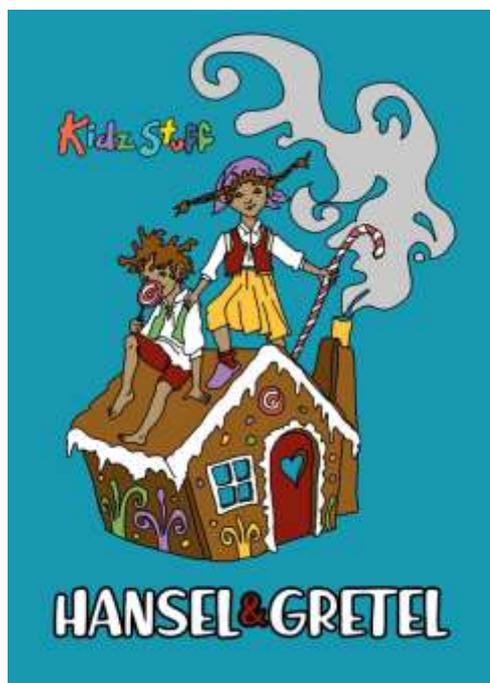

Set in Nelson at the Enner Glynn Primary School, Jemima the Duck falls irrevocably in love with Kevin the Caretaker. It becomes even more hilarious when Jemima starts making daily inspections of 'her' school, tries to fly through a window to stop Kevin talking to a teacher, and even comes head to head with Kevin's wife.

The Duck Who Loved Me runs approximately 45 minutes long and there are three shows a day during the school holidays. Tickets are only $10 concession. It's a hilarious show that's fun for all the family, and includes puppetry, live music and audience interaction.

NZ Police recently launched a new non emergency number, 105. We've done this to make it easier to get hold of us in the event of non-urgent situations or 'Things which have Already Happened', which don't require Police assistance immediately.

You can call us on 105 for all non emergencies, or you can go online at 105.police.govt.nz to report things like:

- Lost property
- Theft for a public place or car
- Intentional property damage
- Or to get an update or add info to a previous report

In the event of an emergency, always call 111 - Things that are Happening Now.

Vodafone Competition - Sing your way to win part of a total prize pool of $13K

As proud technology partners, Vodafone are helping to spread the word about 105.
